

Jack Kaufman

Jack has represented and/or advised virtually every category of small to mid-size business: manufacturers, distributors, food service, automotive, apparel, medical practices, transportation and service providers. As a founding partner of Kaufman McAndrew, LLP, Jack has more than 45 years of experience providing clients with a full range of counseling and services, including business law, entity formation, contracts, leases, litigation and strategic growth.

Jack has served as a member of the Business Advisory Committee of the United States House of Representatives. He has also served as President of the San Fernando Valley Criminal Bar Association and the Executive Committee of the San Fernando Valley Bar Association's Business Law Section. He is very active in the community and philanthropic organizations, and has been on the Board of Directors of Goodwill Industries and the Santa Clarita Valley Mayor's Committee for the Employment of Individuals with Disabilities. Most significantly, for over 35 years he has received the highest Peer and Judicial Reviews as determined by Martindale-Hubbell.