ARCO Announces $148,500 Donation To Goodwill Southern California's Jobs Accelerator Fund During Challenging Times

Los Angeles, CA, August 27, 2020 – ARCO® today announced a $148,500 donation to Goodwill Southern California (GSC), in continued support of Goodwill's employment programs. Since 2016, ARCO has partnered with Goodwill Southern California to invest in the sustainability of local communities through Goodwill's mission of Transforming Lives Through the Power of Work.

With this most recent gift, ARCO becomes one of the first supporters of the upcoming "Do Good. Do Goodwill" campaign. ARCO's donation will directly support the Goodwill SoCal Jobs Accelerator Fund, which will expand the scale and scope of Goodwill's job training and placement services to meet the growing need resulting from the COVID-19 crisis.

"We at ARCO are committed to invest in our local communities through our partnership with Goodwill Southern California," said John Rice, Manager of Advertising for Marathon Petroleum Corporation, which owns the ARCO brand. "Having worked with Goodwill Southern California over the past five years through hiring partnerships and donation drives, we know that Goodwill's services are needed more than ever during this time of need."

The donation from ARCO will help non-profit and social enterprise Goodwill Southern California fund its education, training, work experience and job placement services for individuals with barriers to employment throughout Los Angeles (N. of Rosecrans), Riverside, and San Bernardino counties. Programs assist individuals with disabilities, veterans, at-risk youth, individuals formerly incarcerated, the homeless, and job seekers in our local communities.

"ARCO understands that all members of our community have much to give, including people who have historically faced vocational challenges," said Patrick McClenahan, President and CEO of Goodwill Southern California. "ARCO's support has enabled us to provide vital employment services needed even more this year with so many people facing unemployment due to the COVID-19 crisis. We are grateful to ARCO, their customers and station owners who have made generous contributions for multiple years."
