Raven-Symoné promotes “Do Goodwill” campaign to support Goodwill SoCal’s job training programs

Meet Raven at Goodwill Atwater Village; shop her closet in-store & online at Thrilling

Los Angeles, CA, June 29, 2021 - Raven-Symoné has joined the movement to “Do Goodwill.” The actress-singer-activist cleaned out her personal closet to find special items to donate to Goodwill Southern California. In a video conversation with her close friend and confidante Alex Wright, Raven showcases her donations while discussing fashion, life and our collective responsibility to steward a sustainable future for people and the planet. The video debuts July 1 at DoGoodwill.com.

The video features breezy repartee between Raven and Wright. Wright shares that as a single mom at a tough time, she benefitted from Goodwill SoCal’s job training programs. Raven uses the video to raise awareness of Goodwill SoCal's mission to Transform Lives Through the Power of Work. “That’s why I do Goodwill,” she says.

With the nation facing historic unemployment due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Goodwill SoCal launched a new campaign - “Do Good. Do Goodwill” - to raise awareness about its employment programs that help people find jobs. Thrift store sales fund Goodwill Southern California’s Workforce and Career Development programs, which served more than 17,000 people in 2020. “We are collaborating with Goodwill to do good... which I am very excited about. I hope we can talk you into becoming part of the Goodwill community,” Raven says in the video. “It’s all about good jobs. It’s all about good work. And it’s all about good people and Goodwill.”
A selection of Raven’s high-end clothing will be available online starting July 1 at Thrilling, a premier Black and Asian woman-owned online marketplace for vintage and secondhand shopping. The collection will consist of 41 styles, featuring track pants, culottes, t-shirts and sweaters as well as accessories from brands such as Dr. Martens, John Varvatos, Missoni, and Vivienne Westwood, all ranging in price from $25 to $600.

Many of Raven’s donations will be available for sale in “Raven’s Closet” at Goodwill SoCal’s Atwater Village retail store, 3150 N. San Fernando Road, Los Angeles 90065, starting Friday, July 2. Raven will be onsite on July 2 from 10 a.m. until 12 noon to meet with her fans and take selfies with them. While in the store, Raven plans to do some thrifting with Wright and find great items she can upcycle with original artwork. The store opens at 10 a.m.

Starting her career as a toddler, Raven-Symoné has headlined two Disney Channel series, “That’s So Raven” (2003-2007) and “Raven’s Home” (2017-present). She cut her first album at age 7 and has worked as a solo recording artist as well as part of the musical group “The Cheetah Girls.” She also appeared as a co-host on ABC’s “The View” (2015-16) and made guest appearances on ABC’s “Black-ish.”
